

CHESLEN PRESERVE

Proceeds from the ChesLen Chase for Open Space benefit Natural Lands Trust's 1,263-acre ChesLen Preserve—one of the largest private nature preserves in southeastern Pennsylvania. This picturesque open space features sweeping agricultural fields, densely wooded stream corridors, and rare serpentine barrens.

ChesLen Preserve is open to the public, free of charge, during daylight hours seven days a week. With eight miles of trails it is a popular destination for hikers, birders, nature enthusiasts, families, and runners.

For more information about ChesLen Preserve and other Natural Lands Trust preserves, visit natlands.org.

For more information about our trail race, contact Becky Rennix, 610-353-5587 x 214 or brennix@natlands.org

Natural Lands Trust is the region's foremost land conservation organization and is dedicated to protecting the forests, fields, streams, and wetlands that are essential to the sustainability of life in eastern Pennsylvania and southern New Jersey. Since 1953, Natural Lands Trust has preserved more than 100,000 acres, including 42 nature preserves totaling more than 22,000 acres. Today, millions of residents enjoy the healthy habitats, clean air and water, bountiful recreational opportunities, and scenic beauty provided by the lands we have preserved.
